

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION ASSESS YOURSELF

1. UNDERSTANDING HOW YOUR MEMORY WORKS	1	4. REMEMBERING LISTS, SPEECHES AND PRESENTATIONS	45
Brain remembers pictures better	2	The CARR Technique	46
The 3 R's of memory process	3	The Word Train Technique	48
The enemies of your memory	4	Using the Word Train Technique to remember a to-do list	52
Debunking memory myths	8	The Body List Technique	54
The secrets of maximising your memory power	9	Using the Body List Technique to remember facts and ideas	56
Star Tips for understanding how your memory works	11	The Roman Room Technique	57
		Using the Roman Room Technique to remember
2. ASSOCIATION — THE MENTAL GLUE	13	speeches and presentations	60
The Trigger Principle	14	Expanding the Roman Room	65
How good is your memory?	15	Word Train vs Body List vs Roman Room	67
How to create strong associations	17	Star Tips for remembering lists, speeches and presentations	69
Association exercises	22
Star Tips for making associations stick like glue	25	5. REMEMBERING ABSTRACT AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE WORDS	71
		The Visual Trigger Technique	72
3. MEMORY TECHNIQUES FOR BEGINNERS	27	Knowledge triggers	73
First Letter Technique	28	Sound triggers	75
First Letter Sentence Technique	30	Using triggers to improve your vocabulary	76
Number Phrase Technique	33	Using triggers to remember foreign language vocabulary	79
Number Shape Technique	36	Using triggers to remember technical terms and other abstract words	81
Number Rhyme Technique	40	Star Tips for remembering abstract and foreign language words	83
Star Tips for beginners	43

6. REMEMBERING NUMBERS AND STATISTICS	85	9. TECHNIQUES TO DEAL WITH EVERYDAY MEMORY PROBLEMS	143
The Ultimate System	87	Overcoming absent-mindedness	144
Converting numbers into words (and images)	90	Remembering alphabetical or alpha-numerical information	148
Dealing with one- or two-digit numbers	96	Dealing with tip-of-the-tongue (TOT) phenomenon
Using phonetics to remember numbers of any length	98	and mental blocks	149
The 100 images database — your cheat sheet	103	Remembering birthdays and anniversaries	150
Star Tips for remembering numbers and statistics	107	Remembering weekly appointments	151
7. REMEMBERING NAMES AND FACES	109	Storing information in your long-term memory	153
Why do we forget names?	110	Remembering spoken information	154
The Five-step Name Memory System	113	Remembering what you read	155
The Basic Technique — five steps explained	113	Star Tips for dealing with everyday memory problems	157
The Advanced Technique — five steps explained	118	10. TRICKS AND STUNTS TO MAXIMISE YOUR MEMORY
Putting it all together	124	AND IMPRESS PEOPLE	159
Star Tips for remembering names and faces	125	Calendar memory	160
8. EIGHT WAYS TO TURBOCHARGE YOUR BRAIN POWER	127	30-digit number	163
Doing meditation	129	Mental filing cabinet	164
Solving puzzles	130	Facts about people	166
Creating a mind canvas	132	Meeting memos	168
Asking “what if?”	133	Applying memory stunts to your working life	170
Thinking of ten uses	135	Star Tips for maximising your memory and impressing people	171
Trusting your brain	136
Learning a new skill	138
Activating Instant Replay	139
Star Tips for turbocharging your brain power	141

INDEX
ABOUT THE AUTHOR